

In Prayer for Briercrest

DECEMBER 2021

Please pray...

- 1) for the Performing and Worship Arts Department as they rehearse for the Candlelight Christmas Concert on Dec. 4 in Moose Jaw, SK.
- 2) for the Seminary Team as they meet to evaluate and plan on Dec. 3.
- 3) for the BCA Cougar Classic Sr. Boys and Girls Basketball Tournament, that Christ would be glorified before our students, staff, and guests who attend the games.
- 4) for Athletics staff walking through very challenging health situations with close family or friends.
- 5) for the BCA Christmas Gala, that students will have fun dressing up and celebrating the beginning of the Christmas season together.
- 6) for Carlie Pagens, Dr. Margaret Clarke, and Dr. Sam Berg as they teach Counselling Practicum 1 (Dec. 6-10) with 30 registered students.
- 7) for Andrew Russell, Coordinator of Indigenous Students, as he organizes events and supports our Indigenous students.
- 8) for continued mental and physical health for faculty and staff.
- 9) for Chad Foreman and the Accounting Team as they process transactions and complete reporting requirements.
- 10) for wisdom and clarity for Adrian Lester, Director of Human Resources, as he manages staff inquiries.
- 11) for clarity of mind and wisdom for Stephane Poirier and the Information Systems Team as they work at keeping all electronic and sound systems working for the schools.
- 12) for safety for our Campus Operations team as they work in the cold and dark to keep our schools safe and warm in the cold winter weather.
- 13) for Dr. Joel Houston as he teaches Theology of God and Creation (Dec. 13-17) at the end of a busy semester.
- 14) for all our students as they finish assignments and prepare for final exams.
- 15) for Erin Gordon as she leads our Academic Resource Centre giving support to our student body. Pray also for those students who have academic struggles related to health.
- 16) for the heat, electricity, and water to work efficiently over the cold winter months in the school buildings, dorms, and housing units.
- 17) for missionary families not able to be home with their families during the Christmas season.
- 18) for continued health, safety, and health for all Briercrest students, faculty, and staff as they enjoy their Christmas Break, Dec. 18-Jan 9.
- 19) for unsaved family members and friends, that they would see the light of Christ and surrender their lives to Him this Christmas season.
- 20) for BCA students as they write final exams for Term 1 (Dec. 20-22).
- 21) that no one would be alone this Christmas season, that we would respond in faith if God should direct us to host a lonely person and invite them into our celebrations this Christmas.
- 22) for our Sodexo (Food Services) staff to have great rest over the Christmas break.
- 23) for continued health and safety for all BCA students, teachers, and staff as they enjoy their Christmas break (Dec. 23-Jan. 5).
- 24) that our focus would be on the gift of Jesus this Christmas.
- 25) MERRY CHRISTMAS! Jesus IS the Reason for the season.
- 26) that our students would have meaningful time connecting with family and friends.
- 27) for faculty and our Academic Services Department as they finalize grades and paperwork from the fall semester.
- 28) for our alumni and donors, that they would be blessed for their faithful prayers and support on behalf of God's mission through Briercrest.
- 29) for wisdom, courage, boldness, and protection for President Michael Pawelke, as he leads Briercrest into 2022.
- 30) for the new students who are preparing to come to school for the winter semester.
- 31) HAPPY NEW YEAR!! May God bless us all this year!
