

In Prayer for Briercrest

JANUARY 2022

Please pray...

1) for God to bless everyone who prays for Briercrest. We are so very thankful for you!
2) for safe travels as students return to campus for the winter semester.
3) for student athletes as they arrive back on campus for training.
4) for Youth Quake (YQ) registrations, which open today. Pray that God will draw many youths to attend online YQ@Home sessions in February and campus retreats in May.
5) with praise for the Memorandums of Understanding that Briercrest Seminary will sign with Nipawin Bible College and Peace River Bible Institute, enabling grads of their four-year degree programs to access more of our Seminary programs.
6) for Briercrest Christian Academy (BCA) students as classes resume.
7) for safety for the BCA Basketball and Hockey teams as they travel.
8) with praise to God for funding Briercrest's mission and programs.

9) for the Topics in Marriage and Family Therapy course, taught by Tony Schnare (Jan 10-14).
10) for college students as winter semester begins today.
11) for the online semester-based Homiletics course taught by Dr. Blayne Banting.
12) for the Athletics Department, that they would remain focused on their core values as they lead student athletes during a busy and competitive semester.
13) for Rob Schellenberg and Campus Operations staff as they work in the harsh winter months to keep campus facilities running.
14) for Dr. Blayne Banting, Dean of the Seminary, as he leads Seminary Team meetings today.
15) for department managers as they begin budgeting for 2022/23.
16) for the online semester-based course Christian Theology Overview, taught by Dr. Joel Houston.
17) for our Admissions staff as they process applications for the Seminary Counselling programs. More than 30 people have applied, and only 17 can be admitted. Pray that God would open other doors for those who will not be admitted at this time.
18) for the Accounting Department as they spend January and February working on year-end receipts for donations, tuition, etc.
19) for the athletic game day staff as they create a great fan experience and navigate COVID protocols.
20) for our 2022 graduates as they complete final classes, projects, and portfolio interviews.

21) for health and safety for students, faculty, and staff throughout the year.
22) for the online semester-based course Advanced Hermeneutics, taught by Dr. Jen Gilbertson.
23) for the athletic teams as they travel, compete, and navigate all the additional challenges of changing COVID protocols. Pray they will be thankful for the opportunities they have to play and represent Christ to their peers.
24) for clarity and wisdom for Campus Operations as they plan projects for the coming year.
25) for the hiring of three faculty positions in January/February (Old Testament, Business Administration, and Christian Ministry).
26) that we all would offer our bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God (Romans 12:1).
27) for Dr. Blayne Banting, Dean of the Seminary, as he leads Seminary Team meetings tomorrow.
28) for the online semester-based Old Testament Survey course, taught by Dr. Keith Bodner.
29) that the Lord would bless and protect President Michael Pawelke and his family and continue to give him much wisdom and guidance as he leads all three schools.
30) with praise for how the Lord has provided students and resources in 2021 to sustain His mission here at Briercrest.
31) for the Foundations of Marriage and Family Therapy course, taught by Dr. Sam Berg (Jan 31-Feb 4).
